

ASCON Lady's Program

INVITATION TO ONE DAY TRIP ON NOV. 14

Welcome to Japan's first port of call, Yokohama.

Since Japan opened its doors to the world in 1859, Yokohama has been the nation's entry point for international trade and communications. It has been bringing global perspectives, new ideas and technologies.

One day is too short to show you such all faces of Yokohama. But we will show you and guide you nowadays Yokohama as possible as we can.

In the morning, we will take you to a time honored spacious Sankeien Japanese Garden where leaves will turn red and yellow. There you will taste a Japanese tea and a set menu of select Japanese food.

In the afternoon, you will see a Landmark Tower of Yokohama on the 69th floor. Then we will go to the Cupnoodles Museum and you will make your own original cupnoodle by yourself which is an instant noodle.

Detailed plan as follows;

A.M. 10:00 Tower Lobby at Hotel New Grand

10:30 ---- 12:20 Sankeien Garden (<http://www.sankeien.or.jp/en-about/index.html>)

Tea ceremony (tea time), Touring with volunteer guides

P.M. 12:30 ---- 13:30 Rinkaen (restaurant) /Lunch time

14:00 Landmark Tower (<http://www.yokohama-landmark.jp/web/english/>)

15:00 Cupnoodles Museum (<http://www.cupnoodles-museum.jp/english/index.html>)

17:00 Hotel New Grand

We will charter a micro bus, and some wives speaking English will escort you!!

20 persons limited to join this program.

An entry fee is 9,000 yen including all of the fee (bus, entrances of three places, traditional Japanese tea and lunch).
